

Dear Reviewers and Editor,

Thank you for conditionally accepting our manuscript. We believe that this version of the manuscript is substantially better than the first one. So, thank you very much for all the incisive comments and belief in our piece. We have conducted both minor revisions suggested:

- Changed “retrieves” for “revokes” on page 16.
- Added a recommendation for future research focussed on the theoretical findings related to transnationalisms.

In addition, we also made several minor revisions to improve grammar and readability, without changing any substantial content of the piece.

Thank you for the reviews and editorial work.

Sincerely,

The authors
